

Available Position: Psychologists (x2)

Part-time or Full-time

Since 1995 The Enough is Enough well established and developing Psychology, Counselling and Support Unit (not for profit) located in the Sutherland Shire has provided effective counselling and support group services drawing from proven therapies and our own unique experience working with people in crisis to bring about healing, hope and growth for all members in our community.

We provide a professional service and conduct individual, group, family and couple services.

We are looking for two highly motivated AHPRA registered individuals with excellent communication, assessment/intervention and organisation skills as well as a commitment and ability to work with a range of people and their families/stakeholders, with complex needs, to achieve meaningful outcomes.

The psychologist will have the opportunity to develop their own practice within a service.

- Days are flexible
- Hours are flexible (to suit the right applicant)
- Doctors and Victims Services are among our referral sources
- Full administration to support clinician
- The unit is open Monday – Saturday
- Training & development
- Professional supervision
- Healthy work life balance
- Positive and supportive work culture
- Challenge & Variety

Please contact Simone Marslew on email simone@enoughisenough.org.au